Rafting through the Dells.

A few weeks since we gave a short description of the Dells, incidentally referring to their somewhat dangerous character in rafting; but as we had not then seen them during high water, we were not prepared fully to appreciate the risks run in passing through them with rafts. The Dells generally extend several miles, our new town being located on them; but technically, they comprise the very crooked rapids about half a mile in length, and situated a mile and a half above our place. In high water, with a width of 400 feet, the river has a depth of about an average of 15 feet, and a current of about five or six miles an hour. At the Dells proper, this large and rapidly passing body of water is compressed between rocky banks 50 to 75 feet apart, and so crooked as to make several short turns in the river. The depth of the river between these rocks, in high water is about 60 feet; and through this crooked rocky gorge this great body of water rolls and tumbles, much like the rushing of Niagara under the Suspension Bridge; and with this rapid, boiling current, the rafts are obliged to pass their frightful way. Old raftsmen sometimes pass through without a pilot, but in high water it is more common to employ the pilots living in the vicinity, of whom, according to our information, Leroy Gates, who lives at the Dell Bridge, for coolness, intrepidity and success, stands at the head. The raft is hauled up, and, if large, divided into smaller parts, at the head of the Dells, some two miles above the Dells proper—the pilot is taken aboard and all things made ready, and the raft pushed off to plunge through its rocky gauntlet. It has a large oar fore and aft, each manned with three or four men—the pilot having charge of the forward oar. As they approach the narrows, every man prepares for a desperate struggle at his oar to keep the raft from being dashed to pieces against the rocks, at one side or the other, as it rushes on its winding course. Then comes the struggle. Sometimes a mighty current from a projecting point sends the raft violently towards the opposite bank; sometimes the whirling, boiling waters suddenly heave up some parts and settle others, so that it requires the dexterity of a rope-walker to keep one's balance; sometimes part of the raft is submerged, and the men keep their position in the foaming water by holding tight to the oar till that end of the raft arises and the other end plunges under; sometimes a mighty whirlpool strikes the forward oar, breaking it in an instant, and leaving men and raft to the guidance of Providence and one oar; sometimes a man is thrown into the boiling flood by an unmanageable oar, or overbearing wave, to be again thrown upon the raft by a counter current, drawn back by his companions, or to sink to death in the maddened waters; and sometimes the whole raft is dashed to pieces, leaving each man to save himself on the fragments as best he can! Last Wednesday, with many other spectators—men and women, boys and girls—we witnessed the passage of several rafts; saw the heaving, tumbling, submerging, breaking of oars, &c., but all went through safely, cheered on by the waving handkerchiefs of the spectators, though one poor fellow took a risky plunge into the boiling flood, but was saved by his companions. We learn that sometimes as many as a hundred persons are collected on the bridge and rocks near by to witness the passage of the rafts, and as our town grows to be a city, doubtless the number of spectators at these exciting scenes will be largely increased.—Newport Mirror.

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

We have some details of the news by two steamers—the North America and the America. Breadstuffs are quoted higher, particularly for better qualities. News not important.

The telegraph brings the news of a murder by a Member of Congress, at Willard's Hotel, at Washington.

It will be seen that one of the bogus Sheriffs in Kansas, in breaking into the dwelling of a citizen, has received a warm [illegible] of reception quite unexpected.

Another outrageous attempt upon the lives of railroad passengers is detailed.

We devote some attention to the "last dying speech and confession" of the Barstow apologists.

Another of Mr French's letters is commenced to-day.

Several political articles of interest, and numerous items of local matter from our State exchanges, will be found.

See our local and advertising columns for much interesting matter.

The Frauds of the Canvass Confessed. How to Count in a Minority Governor.

The ex-State Canvassers last fall, as our readers well know, by allowing bogus and forged election returns, managed to count in Wm A Barstow as Governor of the State, and issue him a certificate accordingly. The wrong was so flagrant, that the friends of Gov Bashford determined to contest the matter before the Supreme Court. They did so, and successfully.—After all manner of shifts, turns, dodges and delays, the Usurper, finding it impossible to avoid a direct issue, and dreading the inevitable exposure which he and his friends knew must follow a judicial inquiry into the Canvass, resigned his office and fled the field.

It was undoubtedly the hope and expectation of Barstow and his Counsellors that, the way being then clear, the Supreme Court would forthwith give judgment in favor of Gov. Bashford without inquiring into his title to the office. By the strict rule of law, they might have done so, but in view of the importance of the pending issues, they required Mr Bashford to prove his title. This he did promptly and conclusively.—It was shown beyond all manner of doubt or cavil that at least [illegible] fraudulent votes had been counted for Barstow, that returns had been received and allowed from four precincts where no election was held and not a single vote cast, and that in another precinct the vote as returned gave Barstow over [illegible] majority, more than the vote actually cast. It was shown further, that the State Canvassers had utterly transcended their authority in allowing "supplementary" returns, and had discriminated, even in these, against Bashford and in favor of Barstow. These developments were as [illegible] as they were unanswerable. Honest men of all parties joined in denouncing the villanies of the Canvass, and in applauding the decision of the Supreme Court, ousting the Usurper and putting in the rightful Governor.

The backers of Barstow and his Board of State Canvassers felt that they could not stand up against the unexplained or undefended infamy of the transactions thus brought to light. Some sort of apology or plea was indispensable. It must be made, or they must quit the State in shame and disgrace. Accordingly the State Canvassers put forth an elaborate excuse to the People for the false count which they had made of the votes cast at the last election, and for the fraudulent certificate which they had awarded to Wm A Barstow. But when the excuse came to be scanned it was found that no reference whatever was made to any of the four notorious precincts in which it had been charged and proved, and has never yet been denied, that the returns were wholesale forgeries! Bridge Creek, Spring Creek, Gilbert's Mills, and Town 25, Range 10, where no election had been held, nor a single vote cast, and which yet had been allowed and counted as "supplemental" returns, giving Barstow 253 majority—126 more than his declared official majority—these four precincts were wholly ignored in the labored Apology and Defence of the State Canvassers. And in regard to the Waupaca canvass, where it was proved that the actual majority, as cast, of 69 for Barstow, had been returned and allowed at 18[illegible] majority for Barstow, they contented themselves with saying that the fiction was formal on its face. Of course such a Defence fell still born and subsided. It only effect was to confirm the public conviction of the frauds and iniquities of the canvass. Democratic papers which had supported Barstow, were the first to point out the fatal omissions in the Canvassers' Defence, of which we have [illegible] above. Such a plea was worse than none at all. It was indeed a confession of all the frauds and rascalities that had been charged.

Of course, the necessity for some defence became greater than ever. To leave the matter in its present attitude would be fatal to the hopes and aspirations of the Forty. Accordingly the Madison Argus, the official organ of the Barstow party, has been set to try its hand on the job which the State Canvassers attempted, but failed to accomplish. The result of that labor appears in the News of yesterday, with a hearty endorsement. These twin organs of Barstowism claim, upon the strength of their new array of figures, that Barstow, not Bashford, received a majority of the votes cast at the last election. It needs but very few words to answer and refute this last lying pretence of the Forty.

We take their summing up, which is as follows:

| | Barstow | Bashford |
|---|---|---|
| County returns | [illegible] | [illegible] |
| Supplementary and precincts | 581 | [illegible] |
| Towns in Waupaca | 210 | [illegible] |
| Total vote | 36,405 | 36,270 |

By these facts and figures, which are susceptible of proof in any court of justice—Gov Barstow received the highest number of votes in the State.

This "ciphering" brings Barstow out 135 ahead. In order to do it, the following slight liberties are taken with the vote actually cast:

1 Waupaca Falls is counted at 186 majority for Barstow, when it actually gave him but 69—an error (!) of 117 votes.

2 The vote of Weyauwega, 110 majority for Bashford, is coolly pronounced [illegible] and thrown out—another error of 110 votes.

3 The vote of Marinette, Oconto County, 30 for Bashford, 5 for Barstow, is pronounced, on anonymous authority a fraud. We have proved by the testimony of the Town and county Clerks, that this was the actual and legal vote of the town.

4 The Door County vote—80 majority for Bashford—legally returned and certified to by the Door and Brown County Officers, nearly all democrats, and vouched for by the Green Bay Advocate (a Democratic paper)—is also coolly excluded as fraudulent upon further anonymous authority.

Now, to go no farther, let us make these corrections in the Argus count, and see how it stands then:

| | BARSTOW | BASHFORD |
|---|---|---|
| Argus version | 36,405 | 36,270 |
| Deduct for Waupacca, | 417 | —— |
| Add for Weyauwega, | —— | 110 |
| " for Marinette | —— | 30 |
| " for Door | —— | 80 |
| | 35,958 | 36,590 |

Majority for Bashford, SIX HUNDRED AND TWO.

We take it that this disposes of the matter. But a further scrutiny would swell the actual majority for Bashford to upward of ONE THOUSAND. So much for the Barstow Managers' "last kick."

There is, however, one noticeable symptom of improvement about it. They do at length substantially own up to the Bridge Creek, Spring Creek, Gilbert's Mill, and town [illegible]. To be sure, these villanies have been [illegible] beyond dispute, or denial, but there is one [illegible] in a convict's confession. Hear the Argus then:

"In this article we say nothing of the precinct returns from Spring Creek, Bridge Creek, Gilbert's Mills and Town 25, range 10, which are alleged to be fictitious. Whether they are, or not, we do not know. They look as formal and as honest as the Menomonee precinct return, which is genuine. If any of them are genuine, it adds that amount to Governor Barstow's votes. If they are all [illegible], it does not affect the above result."

Considering that rather more than [illegible] months have elapsed since the election, and that not the first man has yet been found, to say that he made out, or signed the above returns, or voted in any of the "precincts" above named—that of these four precincts included it unfictitious voters (giving Barstow 253 majority) not a single one has ever "turned up" in [illegible] witness of the fact—it is a refreshing [illegible] on the part of the Argus to [illegible] that it is still in doubt whether these [illegible], proved [illegible] forgeries, are or are not [illegible]. This caps the climax to the defence, and renders further argument or illustration quite superfluous.

DEATH OF DR HALL.—We regret to learn that Dr Hall, who had but recently commenced to take charge of the Madison Water Cure, died on [illegible] morning, at Madison. He [illegible] last evening train, to be [illegible].

N. Y. & Erie R. R. Report of President and Superintendent.

We have had before us for some time the very interesting Reports of H Ramsdell, President and D C McCallum Superintendent of the N Y & Erie R R, but have not hitherto been able to give any notice of it. The Reports with the tables accompanying them make up a book of nearly 200 pages, and the facts and figures contained are of great interest to railroad men and indeed to almost everybody in the railroad [illegible].

The N Y & Erie R R Co had during the year 1855, with very heavy liabilities hanging over it, and the receipts hardly sufficient, with those coming due, to meet daily expenses. [illegible] therefore, to [illegible] the road, to provide means on their personal liability, and various economies were adopted, and by prudent management the Company now [illegible] to a resumption of dividends before long.

The Superintendent's Report is very interesting, furnishing an accurate daguerreotype of the actual condition of the road in all its departments. It details the various experiments ordered for economy with the necessary [illegible], and safety to life and property. Mr McCallum alludes at length and with pride, to the beautiful working of the Company's telegraph in conducting the operations of the road and preventing collisions &c. Very full tables, giving minute information under all the departments, are published, including the results of careful experiments with trains running the whole length of the road and determining the effects of grade, curvature, and gauge.

We copy from the Reports the following figures:

| | |
|---|---|
| Gross Earnings for [illegible] | [illegible] |

SCHOOLS OF OHIO AND NEW YORK CITY.—The number of pupils in the common schools of Ohio in 1855 was [illegible], with an average daily attendance of [illegible]. Number of male teachers employed 11,267; number of female teachers 9,971; total 21,2[illegible]. The amount expended for school purposes in 1855, [illegible]. Average wages of teachers per month—male teachers in common school $25 64, female do $11 2[illegible]; male teachers in High Schools $[illegible], female do $30 [illegible]; male teachers in English and German $[illegible], female do $[illegible]; male teachers in colored schools $2[illegible] 10, female do $1[illegible] 2.

In New York City the number of schools under the care of the Board of Education was in 1855, 2[illegible]1, with an aggregate of [illegible] pupils and average attendance of 51,[illegible]. The whole amount of money drawn from the city chamberlain for the purposes of education during the year was $[illegible], of which $[illegible] was received from the State fund.

THE NEWS' KANSAS CORRESPONDENT.—The News admits the correctness of our [illegible] that Dan'l Lowhan is its Kansas Correspondent, but defies us to "impeach his character for truth and veracity." We shall not try to. The single fact that Dan Lowhan is its authority and the apologist of the Border Ruffians, is quite enough. "The oldest inhabitants," to whom the News appeals for an endorsement of Dan, will know pretty well what value to attach to the statements upon which the News has laid so much stress. It would be waste of time and words to say more.

THE CROPS IN GRANT COUNTY.—The Grant County Herald of the 6th instant gives the following good account of the look of the crops in Western Wisconsin:

Fall sown wheat looks well in this region. Our farmers give very little attention to fall wheat, preferring spring wheat, the latter is a much surer crop for our soil and climate. We don't have snow enough for the protection of winter wheat and the winds and cold kill it out. Tremendous crops of spring wheat have been put in, and the farmers are still plowing ground to sow. The rains of the past few days have hindered work but will leave the ground in splendid order. This may be called a backward spring though vegetation has such a vigorous start that a few days of sunshine will put things far ahead. Vegetation is green and healthy, not puny and pale as when alternating heat and cold prevails.

THE REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.—The Grant County Herald, which was inclined at first to favor the call for a Mass Republican Convention, now speaks as follows:

After reading the reply of the Chairman of the State Republican Central Committee to the several recommendations for a Mass State Convention, and having full confidence that he is in no way moved by his sympathies connected with the Know Nothings, we concur in the Committee's recommendation for a State Convention to be composed of two delegates from each Assembly District. We are determined not to be tacked into a partnership with the Know Nothings, whose principles are so opposite to the principles of the Republican party that nothing can reconcile. Our fears were increased by representations—honest, we have no doubt but incorrect. We want to see a clear Republican State Convention of Delegates, without any bogus.

SHORTEST ROUTE TO THE NORTH WEST.—If the Milwaukee & Mississippi Railroad, or the La Crosse & Milwaukee Railroad, were now completed to the Mississippi, goods landed here yesterday morning early by the Propellers from the East, could be on board of steamers and on their way up the river to-day, or from 12 to 24 hours sooner than goods by way of railroads from Chicago. Such will be the case by and by.

DEATH OF SHERIFF JONES.—The Platte (Mo) Argus, of the 21 inst, says that Sheriff Jones is dead. The same paper adds: "We also learn that the Abolitionists have assassinated another pro-slavery man named Harper." No particulars are given in the latter case, and it is likely enough to be a mere rumor.

Arab Notion of Greatness—Americans Here—The Donkey Boys—Dress and Customs of the Egyptians—The Scribes, Barbers and Ladies—A View from the Citadel—The Mosque of Mohammed Ali—His Life and Character—The Mameluke Bey—The [illegible]

CAIRO, Jan 1[illegible], 18[illegible].

After leaving Switzerland I have seen but few Americans before arriving at Cairo, but since I have been here I meet them at the mosques, the pyramids, the temples and most every other place of interest to the traveler—They come from all parts of the United States, among whom I am told there was one gentleman from Wisconsin, Mr Marshall, who recently left this city for Thebes and other places on the Upper Nile. The donkey boys call us "Yankee Doodle," and say they like them and the English, because they have the most money. One of them told me that the Frenchman was very good, but he talked too much, and did not have much money. The Italians, he said, were poor and stingy beside, and that the Greeks would not pay their credit. [illegible] and this is the only standard an Egyptian [illegible] of people from other countries. The [illegible] they look to, in measuring the moral excellence and greatness of an individual, is his [illegible]. Display of embroidery and jewelry [illegible] to them [illegible] of great wealth.

The donkeys are all the [illegible] of Cairo and Alexandria, and become great nuisances if one wishes to walk. They surround the doors of the public houses, the bazaars, the mosques and other places, and when a Frank appears [illegible] would [illegible]. Around the [illegible] low [illegible] fine [illegible] from the door, [illegible] a guest could neither [illegible] individual [illegible] whip [illegible] of the hide of the hippopotamus, and [illegible] upon the [illegible] as well as the young. Among other places there is an establishment [illegible] kept by a Mrs Walker, a widow lady, [illegible] frequented very much by the English and Americans. She does not keep a man to chase the donkey drivers, but a good whip made of the above named [illegible], and she uses it with a will. One morning, going by the steps I saw quite a commotion and a scattering among the craft. In a moment a strong arm went up and down with the strength of a small steam engine, followed by sounds that showed she laid on the blows on their [illegible] [illegible], it not naked, were nearly so. But they are all very good natured, and [illegible]. Although beaten and ill treated, the Egyptian never [illegible] any malice against those who [illegible] from [illegible] strangers from foreign [illegible]. Resentment is not in their nature, and strange as it may appear, if one is particularly kind to them, the motives for so doing they cannot appreciate. They attribute it either to fear, or an [illegible] of their superiority. Notwithstanding the Franks appear among them in better dress, in better style, and generally with plenty of money, which they covet as much as any people in the world, still they look upon them as inferior in everything to themselves. Point to them our steamboats, railroads, manufactories, telegraphs, houses and carriages, and they either will not understand or affect not to understand our advantages over them in these respects. They have a singular blind devotion to their religion, and they will not believe that any nation or individual can be great short of being true Mussulmans.

The dress of the Egyptians is the same as in Turkey—except all that of the Mahometans. It is, however, as there varied. Those who have performed the pilgrimage to Mecca wear green turbans. All others wear the white turban wound around the fez, or what is called in Arabic, tarboosh. The Copts who are supposed to be the actual descendants of the ancient Egyptians are known by their black dress, which is in the same style of make as the others, and by their black turbans. There are many others, however, who think that the working classes in the country, called fellahs, are the true descendants. The Copts are called the Christians of Africa. Their language has become extinct.

The universal language spoken here is the Arabic, and this is more or less the case throughout all Mahometan countries—as much so naturally as the English is with us. There are very few among the better classes of Turks who cannot read and write the Arabic. So among all the nations professing the true faith, as they believe Mohometanism to be. They make it almost a part of their religion to learn and instruct their children in the Arabic language. This is the language which the great Prophet himself spoke, and with which he wrote the Koran. It is also the language employed in preserving their records, the ritual of their church, and the traditions of their forefathers. If I am not mistaken, it is one of the most universal of all languages.

There is no newspaper published in Cairo. On all the streets however may be seen [illegible] together [illegible] constantly at work and frequently engaged in listening to [illegible] reading in the [illegible]. They appear to be men with great earnestness. There is also a great number of scribes, called by them Fakih, who are employed in transcribing books, and also writing contracts, letters and other little business transactions. Like all others, they squat down on the ground in the dirt, many of them, where they do not have a better place, holding the paper or book in one hand, the pen in the other, and using a little pouch buckled round the waist for an inkstand. The blank books used by them in transcribing works, are bound, and when filled, look as if they had been printed. The paper and mechanical execution of the binding is good. It is a well known fact that in writing they commence at the right hand side of the page and proceed to the left. I am not aware that there is much if any difference, at the present time, between the characters used in writing from those used in printing. I have often watched these scribes when writing and wondered at the rapidity with which they wrote.

Owing to the warmth of the climate, the Arabs, like the Chinese, shave the head all over, except a small piece of the size of a copper, which is left for what is called the burial lock. By this tuft of hair, which is allowed to grow its natural length, and which, in the shape of a queue, hangs in folds on the crown of the head, they expect, on the morning of the resurrection, to be lifted into paradise. Over the naked head is placed a small cotton skull cap, which comes down more than half way, and upon over this, the tarboosh.—After this the turban, consisting of three yards of cotton muslin, is folded gracefully around the whole, its folds crossing each other diagonally, and the ends carefully tucked under.

The barbers, like the blacksmiths, have their shops in the open air, either on the edge of the streets for there are no sidewalks, or under trees on the parks and public squares. The most common of the former have no mattresses, while the more aristocratic have them, which, together with a tool resembling a bush hook, and a pot of something resembling grease, constitute the entire stock in trade. It requires considerable nerve to look on and see the operation. The subject for this kind of barbers sits down and when his head is denuded, and this substitute for lather is put over his whole head, face and eyes, with both hands, as a man would grease wool, his whole physiognomy resembles one of the many mummy heads found around the tombs.—After this, the barber, with the left hand firmly grasping the burial lock, begins to scrape with the right, and to do justice to the instrument, I must say it appeared to cut well.

The mosques, I fully described in my letters from Constantinople. I visited several here, but found none so wonderful as Santa Sophia. There is one, however, that will interest all travelers, not only for its size, style, and richness of its marbles, but on account of its site affording the best view to be had of the city and surrounding country. It would be difficult to find any spot in the world commanding so much beautiful scenery, and at the same time overlooking so many places of historical interest. The place is known by the name of the Citadel, and upon its highest summit, is the new mosque of Mohammed Ali.

Concluded tomorrow.

The Coming Conventions.

The Jefferson County Republican, edited by Thurlow W. Brown, whose genuine Republicanism and efficient advocacy of the good cause will not be questioned in any quarter—speaks thus strongly and truthfully in regard to the Mass Convention which has been called at Madison on the same day with the Delegate Convention, by our friend [illegible]:

We do not occupy a neutral position in the Republican ranks. Here [illegible] is already in bold colors right in the West. We are glad to believe that the Republican element largely predominates in the State. It only rests with the friends of the cause to effectually consolidate and combine that element and bring it in a solid phalanx into the [illegible] of the people and to the strength of the Republican party.

With the Republican strength in our State, and the prospects so cheering, the call for a Mass Republican Convention, has caused us very many anxious thoughts. [illegible] voluntarily exposing ourselves. The movement however honest the intention [illegible]. It is time to speak plainly and act promptly. It is preeminently the duty of every good man and true, to go out and fight principles, not men.

A Jew friend of ours who likes to have one of the world's people, lead the singing in his church, once remarked: "If the Devil is going to stand at the helm, I'm not going the voyage." We see the most bitter enemies of the Republican movement attempting to warm on [illegible] and to dictate the movements of the craft. Who does not—who can not—see their motive. Can any one be deceived by such men? Are they the ones to mingle in our council and to wield the banner [illegible]? When the most unscrupulous and malignant pro-Slavery presses commence importuning and [illegible] support the mass convention movement, it is time to guard against villany. The devil might as well assume the management of the Christian religion and claim the confidence of its friends. The noisy endorsement of the mass convention by the Know Nothings and [illegible] is sufficient enough to damn the movement. It is utter madness to admit such into our council. Their object is to divide—distract—to rule. They have no hope but in the chaos of the Republican element. [illegible] is the most effectual means of bringing about the election of Pro Slavery and Know Nothing Delegates could hardly—could not possibly—be returned from Republican districts while on the contrary the whole mark of the factions could stand unquestioned in a crowd, and stand on the same footing as the most sincere and well tried Republican.—Was ever a scheme more pregnant with mischief and disaster, ever attempted? We thank God, we are not yet [illegible] to bed with an enemy who is only to put the knife to our heart. Benedict Arnold's treachery was none the less dangerous to the Revolutionary cause, because [illegible] applauded by a few [illegible]. The enemies are not usually invited to sit in a council of war. When such friends as the Madison Argus come shouting into the hall and cries, "Republicans [illegible]—forward," we choose to denounce him out of camp [illegible].

These things are plain—let us act as they are. The dangers which threaten our cause are plainer to the most careless. To avoid them is to secure a complete and overwhelming triumph. To rush in upon them, is to court defeat and probably total [illegible].

PUTTING A STRONG CASE.—The New York Evening Post, which is doing good service in the Republican cause, in a late article in relation to the coming "Democratic" Convention, and the struggle between Pierce and Buchanan for the nomination, puts the following strong case, which is worthy of the careful consideration of those who have heretofore followed the democratic party through all its vagaries, and the lead of the Slavery extensionists:

"It has never occurred to our readers that neither General Washington nor Thomas Jefferson, if they were now alive, and in the full vigor of their faculties, would have any chance of obtaining the nomination? General Washington, Esquire, who presided at a public meeting held in 1774 in Fairfax county, Virginia—a meeting at which the bringing of slaves into any of the British colonies was denounced as a wicked practice which the citizens of the county earnestly desired to see entirely and forever stopped. George Washington at that time took the same ground in Virginia that Gov. Robinson and Col Lane take in Kansas now. They wanted no slaves brought into the country. The British government favored an introduction of slaves into the colonies, as the administration at Washington now favors their introduction into the Territories; the people protested against it as the settlers west of Missouri protest now—the creatures of the government were on one side and the people of the country on the other.—General Washington could not be nominated by the Cincinnati Convention for another reason.—He approved of the ordinance excluding slavery from the Northwestern territory.

The objections to Jefferson's nomination would be quite as strong. He was the author of the very ordinance which prohibited slavery—the Wilmot Proviso of the day. In his Notes on Virginia, he declares that in the conflict between the claims of the master and the rights of the slave, God has no attribute which would take part with the master. Even the moderate politicians of the State would call Jefferson, if he were alive, and professed such views, an abolitionist.

But why do we talk of the nomination of the Presidency? If Washington or Jefferson were to ask the commission of village postmaster under the present Administration, neither could get the office. Mr Campbell would not trust them to open the mails, because he would not find them orthodox on the question of slavery.—Neither of them could be even made a tide waiter, if his circumstances obliged him to seek such a place. They were anti-slavery men—emancipationists, enemies of the introduction of slavery into free territory.

What must be the character of the political association which would proscribe such men, and exclude them from even the humblest public trust?"

THE "BLACK COAT CORRESPONDENCE."—The correspondence between Mr Sanford and the State Department in regard to the "Diplomatic Costume Circular," is published.

It will be remembered that the Administration issued a Circular, advising, though not requiring our Envoys at foreign Courts to discard the gew gaws and gold lace with which European dignitaries bedeck themselves, and to appear simply in the plain black suit of a Republican citizen.—Mr Sanford, our Secretary of Legation at Paris, and then our sole representative there, obeyed these sensible instructions, in letter and in spirit. He presented himself in plain dress at the Tuileries, and after some difficulty in overcoming the prejudices of Court officials, triumphantly obtained a formal recognition of his right to appear in his choice. But to his astonishment and that of the Court, Mr Mason, who shortly after came there as our Minister, voluntarily chose to assume a bedizened Court suit of lace and frippery!—Thus placed in antagonism with his chief, Mr Sanford had no alternative but to resign. He did so, and in the letters now published stated the facts which had led to it. In reply, our Government slightly commends his course, but at the same time justifies that of Mr Mason, thus backing down from its instructions, and knuckling under to the foreign dictation of costume.

The precedent established by Mr Sanford might, with perfect ease, have been maintained at Paris. And as Paris sets the fashions for all the Courts of Europe, our Envoys might have adopted, everywhere, the dignified simplicity which becomes them as representatives of a Republic. But the shuffling course of the Administration has thrown away the advantage which Mr Sanford had, with so much credit to himself, obtained for them, and has made them ridiculous at home and abroad.—Albany Evening Journal.

LONG STEAMER.—The North river steamer Isaac Newton has been stretched out to the length of 404 feet, making her now the longest vessel afloat.

FROM KANSAS.

Correspondence of the St Louis Democrat.

LAWRENCE, KANSAS, April 27.

This morning an officer came into our city from Col Sumner's camp on the opposite side of the river, bearing the following letter to Gov Robinson:

HEAD QUARTERS 1st CAVALRY, }
Camp near Lawrence, April 27. }

SIR:—As there are no Municipal officers in the town of Lawrence, I think proper to address you before returning to my post. The recent attempt upon the life of Sheriff Jones will produce great excitement throughout the Territory, and on the Missouri frontier, and I consider it of the utmost importance that every effort should be made by your people to ferret out and bring to justice the cowardly assassin. It is not too much to say, that the peace of the country may depend upon it, for if he is not arrested the act will be charged by the opposite party upon your whole community. The [illegible] has been reported at Washington, and whatever orders may be received will be instantly carried into effect. The proclamation which requires obedience to the laws of the Territory, as they now stand, until legally abrogated, will certainly be maintained, and it is very unwise to give heed to people at a distance who counsel violence. If they were here to participate in the danger, they would probably take a different view of this matter. I am, Sir, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

E. V. SUMNER,
Col 1st Cavalry Commanding.

To Mr Chas Robinson.

By the same officer, the following reply was forwarded to Col Sumner:

LAWRENCE, K T, April 27, '56.

SIR:—Your note of this morning is received, and in answer permit me to say that the cowardly attack upon Mr Jones receives no countenance whatever from the citizens of Lawrence, but on the contrary meets with universal condemnation and if the guilty party can be found, he will most certainly be given over to justice. It is and has been the policy of the people of Lawrence to yield prompt obedience to the laws and officers of the Federal Government, and as Mr Jones was acting with the authority of that government on the day of the assault the guilty party was an enemy to the citizens of Lawrence no less than a violator of the laws. The people of Lawrence are without an organized municipal government, and consequently no person or persons can speak or act officially for them, but from what I know of their feelings and disposition, I have no hesitation in saying that they will ever be found loyal citizens of the government, and ready to do all in their power to maintain the laws of their country.

As an evidence of the public sentiment of this community I enclose a copy of the proceedings of a public meeting held on the morning after the unfortunate affair occurred.

Very respectfully, your obt servt,
COL E V SUMNER. CHARLES ROBINSON.

Gen Whitfield left Lawrence on the morning after Jones was shot, saying that he considered this city a very dangerous place, and must leave it for fear of being assassinated. The General who would have knocked any one down that dared in Washington to accuse him of being afraid of Lawrence, returned to day, doubtless very much pleased to learn that his life is not in danger. During his absence from this city, Mr Oliver has been acting as his attorney before the Congress Commissioners of which he himself is a member and doubtless has found himself in a very difficult, if not singular position, acting as judge and counsel at the same time.

Yours, T.

LAWRENCE, Kansas, April 28, 1856.

This morning Sam Lattus, with 30 U S dragoons, came into the city from Lecompton, with his pockets full of warrants, to arrest some free State men. The whole company came down with a rush upon the dwelling of Mr Speers. [illegible] opened the door, and as he looked in a bucket of hot water was thrown in his face by Mrs Speers. Mrs S has great respect for U S officers, but Sheriffs and such like are not permitted to enter her dwelling. Lattus has since resigned his office, and a man named Wallace has been appointed. The troops are now quartered at Franklin. The Kickapoo Rangers are encamped on the opposite side of the river.—Col Sumner and troops under his command, left for Fort Leavenworth yesterday. The Lawrence boys are getting ready to give the Rangers a warm reception. The cannon are in readiness and a picket guard is out to-night.

Awful Attempt to Destroy the Passenger Train on the Michigan Southern Railroad.

The freight train on the Michigan Southern Railroad, which passed the Ainsworth station on its way to the west, on Tuesday evening, about 11 o'clock, running against an obstruction on the road, and in an instant the train of 15 or 18 cars was dashed into one confused heap of broken materials—the engine was nearly buried in a ditch, the tender turned off, and in fact a complete wreck made of everything belonging to the train. The engineer and fireman were both badly injured. The latter is now at the Miner's Exchange in this city, under the care of Dr McVicker. Sixteen valuable horses which were on board the train were instantly killed. One of the animals was landed on the top of the debris of the broken cars, which latter we are informed was fifteen or sixteen feet in height.

Upon examination it was found that some fiends had nailed some rails and ties upon the track, and chained them down, rendering the passage of a train totally out of the question. The obstruction was no doubt intended for the 8 30 passenger train from this city, but this freight train was behind time. The destruction of it no doubt saved probably hundreds of lives from destruction. The train which left here on Tuesday evening at 8 30, was filled with passengers, and had it come in contact with the obstructions placed by these miscreants, the result would have been an accident which would have exceeded in its horrible details, any that has heretofore happened in the annals of railroad traveling.

We have not heard of the cause of these awful road obstructions having been placed on the track. But we trust the authorities will sift the matter to the bottom, and bring the perpetrators of such a detestable and fiendish outrage to justice.

The trains, both east and west, are all detained by the accident. We had no train from the east up to a late hour last evening. And the train which left here at 8 30 was not able to get past the scene of the disaster up to last evening.—Chicago Democrat of yesterday.

Tyrannous Stretch of Authority.

At the bidding and for the benefit of the 347,000 citizens who own Slaves and trade in the fruits of involuntary African labor, in unprincipled and greedy competition with the free labor of twenty millions of whites, the President of the United States has placed the Army of the United States at the service of the ruffians who have taken the job of making Kansas a Slave State. The Executive is charged with the duty of "taking care that the laws be faithfully executed." These must be the laws of Congress.

Banditti from Missouri procured the seeming election as a Legislature of the Territory of Kansas, of citizens of Missouri. These convened, and in fraud of right and in opposition to the wishes of the people of Kansas, passed laws for their government, and appointed officers to execute them. One of these was a sheriff. This pretended official was at the time, since has been, and is now, a resident of Westport in Missouri, and a Postmaster there under Federal appointment. To foment a disturbance, and furnish a pretext for the President's interference with the Army in the quarrel of Slavery with Freedom in Kansas, this self-styled Sheriff went to Lawrence to make arrests, wide cast, upon pretexts impudently frivolous and false. He demanded aid from the bystanders. It was of course refused. The refusal is tortured into a crime. Under the orders of the President, the mounted dragoons of the Army are now in Kansas, arresting and imprisoning citizens for this refusal to help the false Sheriff harass and damage their neighbors and friends.

Is this what the Constitution requires of the Executive? Is he taking care that the "laws of the United States be executed,"—or is he flagrantly violating the letter and the spirit of that instrument, by employing the Army to serve a warrant when no crime has been committed, in behalf of a pretended official whose authority is derived only from the action of the passers upon the soil of Kansas and usurpers of its settlers' rights. Under any circumstances, has the President a right to employ the Army to execute process under laws passed, not by Congress, but by the Legislature of a Territory?—Albany Evening Journal.

TRIAL OF MANUEL FOR THE MURDER OF GILL.—This case occupied the time of the court three days of last week, and during which time the room was crowded with anxious spectators. Every effort that could be, was made in behalf of the prisoner, by his Counsel, N H Fox, James Doolittle, and L Royce, Esqs. A verdict was returned by the jury of manslaughter in the first degree, and the prisoner was sentenced by the Judge to 14 years imprisonment in the State Prison, with 20 days solitary confinement the beginning of each year.—Racine Advocate.

☞ The Argus continues to grumble over Gov. Bashford's appointment of appraisers of the University lands, but carefully keeps back from its readers the fact that Col Jones, the democratic Secretary of State, advised the step, and that it is entirely satisfactory to the Board of Regents.—Madison Journal.

OUR TOWN.—Since the opening of navigation on Lake Winnebago, there has been a continued rush of emigration to our town, and business of every kind has increased two fold. Steamboats arrive daily loaded with passengers who intend settling in Menasha—property is rapidly changing hands, and buildings almost innumerable are being constructed. During the past week we have counted nearly sixty in progress towards completion, and many more under way. Real estate has risen, within the past few weeks, at least fifty per cent, and it is still advancing.—Menasha Advocate.

BANK FAILURE.—The banking house of Preston & Co, of this city, is reported as failed.—This firm issued bills of the Farmer's & Planter's Bank of Georgia. We understand that a large amount of these bills are in circulation. Whether they will be redeemed or not is another question. Preston & Co, are said to have left the city. What amount was deposited with them, we are unable to say, but presume it was small.—Chicago Democrat.

MILLS IN MANITOWOC COUNTY.—The Manitowoc Herald of the 6th instant informs us that there are, in that County 12 steam saw mills, 22 saw mills driven by water, and a flouring mills, beside innumerable saw mills, driven by man power, in the various ship yards, and employed in the shingle trade.

WHOSE BUSINESS IS IT?—The beacon light, which ought to stand on the end of the government pier, was knocked over by the schooner Fanny & Fly, a week ago in the gale, and has not yet been raised or lighted. # DAILY SENTINEL.

Milwaukee, Friday Morning, May 9, 1856.

CITY MATTERS.

POLICE COURT, MAY 8.

BEFORE CLINTON WALWORTH, POLICE JUSTICE.

E. P. Dawson, drunk and disorderly, paid $3; John Shepherd, drunk, second conviction, sent to jail ten days, in default of $3 fine; Riley R. Stillman, drunk, fined $1; David Ross, drunk, fined $2; John P. Welch, drunk, fined $2; Frederick Watts, fast driving on bridge, fined $2.

THEATRE.—Miss Susan Denin was received last evening by a full house at the Theatre, and was heartily applauded as Mariana, in The Wife. To night she appears again as Parthenia, in the celebrated play of Ingomar, Mr. Leffingwell as Ingomar. The favorite comedy of the Rough Diamond concludes the performance; and there will be a crowded house to night, we doubt not.

AN OUTRAGE.—Annually, the people of this city elect certain persons as Aldermen of the several Wards, and among duties which they are sworn to perform are those pertaining to the streets. It is their business, and that of nobody else, to see that they are properly graded, paved, drained, and made passable generally.

Residents of the old First Ward, now the Seventh, have suffered more abuse and outrage to their comfort and pecuniary interests, we verily believe, than those of any other Ward in the city, and ordinance after ordinance, compelling changes of grade, making necessary the tearing up and renewing of sidewalks, the grading down or walling up of lots, the grading and graveling of streets, paving of gutters—is piled upon them year after year; and yet, except in a few favored places, the Aldermen leave the gutters at the intersection of the streets unpaved, till three fourths of them are now deep sloughs, into which it is unsafe to plunge, and which cannot be passed without covering vehicles with mud, a great portion of which is directly deposited upon the crossing. The condition of these gutters is a disgrace to the city and to the Aldermen.

Again, there are several streets in that Ward, upon which individuals are laying out great expense in the way of fine residences, adding greatly to the taxable property of the Ward,—and which are in a scandalous condition from having been graded nearly or more than a year ago, down into the clay, and not a load of gravel ever placed upon them. Main street, between Wisconsin and Mason—Van Buren street, which used to be one of the finest drives in the city,—and the three streets parallel with it and next East, are such streets.

If the Aldermen have the slightest regard for their own reputations, if they care anything for the credit of their Ward or the esteem of their constituents, they will at once look to these things.

ANOTHER OMISSION.—In the "official" report of the Common Council proceedings, Alderman TAYLOR is represented as having "offered a resolution in relation to work done on the Harbor at the straight cut which was referred to the Harbor Committee."

The resolution really offered by Alderman TAYLOR was a call upon the City Engineer to state by what authority protection cribs were ordered to be constructed at the straight cut, and he asked its reference to a select Committee. This motion Ald. HADLEY opposed and carried a reference to the Harbor Committee, for reasons that may, or may not appear hereafter. But however that be, the record, at least, should read straight.

Mr. Wendt, of the Banner, one of the "city printers," requests us to state that there was no report in favor of cutting down the bills from that office, and no deduction made from the bills.

YOUNG MEN'S ASSOCIATION.—The following gentlemen were chosen officers of the Young Men's Association, at the election held on Tuesday evening last:

J. R. Brigham, Pres't.
E. L. Buttrick, Vice Pres't.
C. F. Ilsley, Treas.
C. A. Nazro, Sec'y.

DIRECTORS.

J. K. Bartlett, I. A. Lapham, W. H. Metcalf, C. J. Cary, Geo. Le Fevre, A. O. May, N. S. Donaldson.

AN OLD COUNTRY HOMESTEAD.—Those who want to see the picture of "A Glimpse of an English Homestead," should look in the window of Noyes & Fleitzheim's Furniture Store next to the Marine Bank. The painters are Brooks & Stevens, in Van Cott's Block. The picture is for sale.

CHILD BITTEN BY A DOG.—A little girl was badly bitten by an Englishman's dog on Huron street yesterday. We understand the dog was to be killed by the Police.

DAVIS' BAGGAGE WAGONS.—S. B. & J. Davis received yesterday four new and substantial Baggage Waggons from Concord, New Hampshire. They are to run in connection with the Omnibus Line to the Cars and Boats.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.—WALL's advertisement this morning contains matter of interest to house hunters and others, and they had best act upon the hint.

REAL ESTATE.—HALLETT presents a long list of valuable property this morning, in order that somebody may buy himself rich with a small investment.

VALUABLE BOOKS...Mr. J. W. VAIL at 165 East Water Street, offers a list of useful and interesting books for sale. See his advertisement.

CRAMPTON.

Great Auction Sale!

101 Lots for sale at Auction!

J. H. CRAMPTON will sell to the highest bidder, at his Auction Rooms, on Wisconsin street, commencing on the 20th inst., at 10 o'clock, A. M., One Hundred and One Lots, being the subdivision of a part of Hubbard & Pearson's addition to the First Ward of the city of Milwaukee.

Terms of sale—¼ cash, the remainder in 1, 2, 3 and 4 years, at 7 per cent interest.

The above property is too well known to require puffing—it is located on one of the highest points between the Lake and River, four blocks nearer the Post Office than the eastern terminus of Divis on street, where sales are made daily at from four to five thousand dollars. Five minutes walk from the Water Power and business of the Second Ward and connected with the large manufacturing establishment of the Milwaukee and La Crosse and Horicon roads, by the Plank road bridge, which will be completed and ready for use by the middle of June next, and will open an avenue for a large amount of travel from the North, and make the streets upon which this property is located an important thoroughfare to the city. Water street is already graded to this point, with Cass, Marshall and Astor streets graded and planked sidewalks made to within one or two blocks, to be continued through to Water street and the new bridge during the coming season.

This is an opportunity that will never again be offered, to those having one or two hundred dollars to secure themselves a home, with four years to pay and low interest.

Maps will be in readiness for distribution in a few days. may7

The Old Continentals.

The following lines of Longfellow's stir the blood, and almost bring before us the picture of the fight:

In their rugged regimentals
Stood the old Continentals,
Yielding not,
While the grenadiers were lunging,
And like hail-stones fell the plunging
Cannon shot;
Where the files
Of the isles
From the smoky night encampment,
Bore the banner of the rampant
Unicorn;
And grummer, grummer, grummer
Rolled the "roll" of the drummer
Through the morn.

Then with eyes in the front all,
And with guns horizontal,
Stood our sires;
And the balls whistled deadly,
And the flames flashing redly,
Blazed the fires;
As the swift
Billows drift
Drove the dark battle breakers
O'er the green sodded acres
Of the plain;
And louder, louder, louder
Cracked the black gunpowder
All amain!

Then like smiths at their forges
Labored the red St. George's
Cannoneers,
And the villainous saltpetre
Rung a fierce, discordant metre,
Round their ears;
Like the roar
On the shore
Rose the horse-guard's clangor
As they rode in roaring anger
On our flanks;
And higher, higher, higher
Burned the old-fashioned fire
Through the ranks.

Then the old-fashioned Colonel
Galloped through the white infernal
Powder cloud,
And his broad sword was swinging,
And his brazen throat was ringing
Trumpet loud;
And the blue
Bullets flew
And the trooper jackets redden
At the touch of the leaden
Rifle's breath:
And rounder, rounder, rounder
Roared the iron six pounder,
Hurling death!

TO THE MILLION!

READ AND JUDGE FOR YOURSELVE

PROFESSOR WOOD'S Hair Restorative is no doubt the most wonderful discovery of this age of progress, for it will restore, permanently, grey hair to its original color, cover the head of the bald with a most luxuriant growth, remove at once all dandruff and itching, cure all Scrofula and other cutaneous eruptions, such as scald head, &c. It will cure as if by magic, nervous or periodical headache, make the hair soft, glossy, and wavy, and preserve the color perfectly, and the hair from falling to extreme old age. We could give the testimony of more than one hundred thousand to the truth of every word we have written. See circular and the following:

CARLYLE, Ill., June 29, 1855.

I have used Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, and have admired its wonderful effect. My hair was becoming, as I thought prematurely grey; but by the use of his Restorative it has resumed its original color, and I have no doubt permanently so.

SIDNEY BREESE,
Ex-Senator United States.

VINCENNES, Ind., June 10, 1855.

Prof. O. J. Wood: Dear Sir—As you are about to manufacture extensively and vend your recently discovered Hair Restorative, I will state for whomsoever it may concern, that I have used it and known others to use it; that I have for several years been in the habit of using other hair restoratives, and that I find yours vastly superior to any other I know. It entirely cleanses the head from dandruff, and with one month's proper use will restore any person's hair to the original youthful color and texture, giving it a healthy, soft and glossy appearance, and all this without discoloring the hands that apply it, or the dress on which it drops. I would therefore recommend its use to every one desirous of having a fine color and texture of hair.

Respectfully yours,
WILSON KING

A gentleman of Boston writes to his friends in New Bedford, thus

To your inquiries I would reply that when I first commenced using Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, my hair was almost white, and had been so for the last ten years and it was very thin on the top of my head, and very loose and pulled out freely; but I found that before I had used the second bottle up (which was eight weeks) my hair was entirely changed to its original color (light brown) and is now free from dandruff and quite moist. I have had my hair cut five or six times since the change, and have never seen anything like white hair starting from the roots, and it is now as thick as it ever was, and does not come out at all. It has proved in my case all that I could wish or ask.

Yours, &c., ———.

July 1, 1854.

GARDNER, Me., June 22, 1855.

Mr. Dyer: Dear Sir—I have used two bottles of Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, and can truly say it is the greatest discovery of the age for restoring and changing the hair. Before using it, I was as grey as a man of seventy. My hair has now attained its original color. You can recommend it to the world without the least fear, as my case was one of the worst kind.

Yours, &c.,
DANIEL N. MURPHY.

ST. LOUIS, March 7, 1854.

Prof. Wood:—My hair commenced falling off some three or four years since, and continued to do so until I became quite bald. I tried all the popular medicines of the day, but to no effect. At last I was induced to try your celebrated Hair Restorative, and am happy to say it is doing wonders. I have now a fine growth of young hair, and cheerfully recommend its use to all similarly afflicted.

A. C. WILLMANSON,
193 Second Street.

ST. LOUIS, June 28, 1853.

Prof. Wood:—As you are about to prepare and vend your recently discovered Hair Restorative, and as you request my opinion of it, I will state that my hair was, a few months ago, very grey; and after using two bottles of your Hair Restorative, it assumed its original color, and since its application all dandruff has disappeared from my head, and I have been troubled with no disagreeable itching of the scalp. I am satisfied those who use it will not regret it, as it gives the appearance of having been recently oiled. I am prepared, therefore, to recommend its use to all who are desirous of having a beautiful head of hair.

I am, sir, yours, &c.,
H. L. STEWART.

DR. WEAVER'S

CANKER & SALT RHEUM SYRUP & CERATE.

IT IS AN UNDISPUTABLE FACT THAT the above medicines are the only infallible remedies now before the public for cutaneous Eruptions, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Sore Legs, Ulcers, Old Fever Sores, Scald Head, Scorbutic Eruptions, &c., &c.

Cases that the most eminent Physicians have despaired of relieving, immediately yielded to their active powers, and when used in accordance with the printed directions, which accompany each bottle, the Syrup and Cerate combined eradicate any of the above named diseases, and leaves the sufferer without a blemish. These medicines are too well known to require anything more than a plain statement of facts. The joyful intelligence is arriving daily from East, West, North and South, of the wonderful cures they are performing.

See what is said by those who have used these medicines:

The Rev. Samuel Henry, of Palmer, Mass., says, "they have done me more good than all the other medicines I have used for Erysipelas."

Capt. William Vail, of the steamer Granite State, says: "they have cured my daughter of Salt Rheum and Scald Head of six years' standing. She was literally covered with sores; is now perfectly cured by the use of the Syrup and Cerate."

Dr. A. J. Johnson, of North Wardsboro, Vt., says, "a Scrofulous disease of the hip joint, and Scald Head in the same child, have been cured by the Syrup and Cerate."

Rev. August Bolles says "it has cured the Salt Rheum in my leg."

J. Hatfield Frazer, Esq., editor of the Somerset Whig, Somerville, N. J., says "my mother has been completely cured of a severe case of Tetter of long standing, that had defied the skill of the best Physicians."

Hon. Joel Loomis, of East Lyme, Conn., says, "I was completely cured of Erysipelas in my legs, after a council of the best Physicians in the County had pronounced the disease incurable, (at my age which was seventy-eight years but Weaver's Syrup and Cerate did the work at once."

Elias Latham, Esq., of Orient, Long Island, N. Y., says "I hardly know how to express my gratitude to you and your medicines. I have been afflicted for more than thirty years with Salt Rheum in its worst form. I tried several Physicians in New York, Brooklyn and Greenport. I have dieted and taken medicines enough to float a pretty large boat, but they did me no good. I have taken your medicines one year, and am now able to work and sleep without an ache or a pain, and my neighbors say I am the sprightliest man on the Island."

The Rev. J. S. Swan, of New London, says, I have used the Syrup and Cerate in my family for more than a year and I consider it completely adapted to sustain the high reputation that is claimed for it. I have seen it used in number of cases for Salt Rheum and Erysipelas, with entire success.

Ask Seth Prisbery, of Taunton, Mass. what the medicines will do; ask William Barber, of Three Mile Bay, Jeff Co., N. Y., what the syrup has done for him; ask G. F. & W. H. Boynton, of Perkinsville, Vt.; ask P. L. Kent, of Chicago, Ill; ask Martha Cottle, of Martha's Vineyard, Mass; ask Wm P. Keables, or Wm P. Benjamin, Esqs., of New London; ask Dr. H. M. Mardock, of Pulaski, N. Y; ask J. C Smith, of Brooklyn N. Y., who was cured of Scrofula, after losing his leg by the disease, and suffering for years, has been perfectly cured by the use of the Syrup & Cerate; ask Curtis Burrough, of Shelby, N. Y., who has been cured of a severe case of Salt Rheum; ask Chas. Akin of Hume, N. Y., what the Syrup and Cerate will do for sore legs; ask Winslow and Slafter, Merchants, Virgil, N. Y. what it will do for Fever Sores. In a word, ask every body who has ever tried these wonderful medicines, and the answer will be the same—THEY CURE.

STEAM FOUNDRY!

—OF—

TURTON & SERCOMB,

295, 298, 300, 302 and 304 West Water St.,

IS STILL IN FULL BLAST, WORKING DAY AND night to supply the daily increasing wants of the Badger and other States.

In order the better to do this, the proprietors have erected a large brick Foundry in addition to their former premises. They have added to their stock of Tools a large Planing or Shaping Machine, three Lathes, and a Machine for making bolts, and are now putting in a Steam Engine of — horse power to drive the whole, thereby adding to the former facilities for the successful carrying on of the Foundry, Machine, Engine and Blacksmithing business. They never were in a better position for doing business, and

In regard to the character of the work got up by this the Proprietors refer to that in successful operation through the country as their best recommendation, as it can speak for itself. All they can say is, that they are both PRACTICAL MECHANICS, and know how work should be done as well as the next man.

They continue to manufacture FLOUR and SAW MILL GEARING, and STEAM ENGINES, on the most approved principle,

They have always on hand a large stock of BRASS WORKS, such as GUAGE AND CYLINDER COCKS, OIL CUPS AND COCKS, and STEAM WHISTLES. Also TURTON'S FILES, which they will sell at the lowest cash price.

They are also Agents for EASTMAN'S PATENT STEAM GUAGES, which are well worth the attention of all those who use Steam Engines.

In conclusion, they invite a continued share of the patronage of their old friends, and solicit a call from all those in want of Saw or Flouring Mill Work, assuring them that no exertions will be spared to render the Old Eagle worthy of the reputation it has already gained.

Their motto is, "Excelsior."

HELMBOLD'S GENUINE PREPARATIONS.

HELMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED
Compound Fluid Extract Buchu.

A CERTAIN, safe, and effectual remedy for Diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel, Dropsy, Obstructions, Female Complaints, and all Diseases of the Sexual Organs, whether in Male or Female, from whatever cause they may have originated, and no matter of how long standing.

This popular and specific remedy is now offered to the afflicted, and guaranteed to cure all the above complaints. It searches out the very roots of the diseases, driving out all the diseased fluids of the body, thus removing the cause and rendering the cure certain and permanent.

This medicine allays pain and inflammation, which other remedies invariably cause, and can be taken with less trouble and expense to patients. This infallible remedy has saved thousands from the hands of merciless quacks, if not from premature graves. In cases of infections, the Compound Buchu is the only article worthy of the least confidence of the afflicted in performing safe cures. It contains no narcotic, or other injurious drug, but is a purely VEGETABLE COMPOSITION. It is very agreeable to the taste, creates no perceptible odor, and may be taken by persons of either sex, without hindrance from business or medical advice, as plain directions for use accompany the medicine. Reader, if you have any of the above complaints, do not neglect them; DELAYS ARE DANGEROUS. With this medicine you can cure yourself, and thus prevent all exposure.

Truth must and will prevail. This medicine speedily and effectually cures the most virulent form of secret diseases, and eradicates every particle of infectious matter from the system, restoring the patient to a perfect state of health and purity. And as a medicine which must benefit everybody, from the simply delicate to the confined and desponding invalid, no equal is to be found, it acting both as a cure and preventive of any of the above ailments.

HELMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED
Compound Fluid Extract of SARSAPARILLA.

For purifying the Blood, removing all diseases arising from excess of Mercury, exposure and imprudence of life, chronic constitutional disease, arising from an impure state of the Blood, and the only reliable and effectual known remedy for the cure of Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ulcerations of the Throat and Legs, Pains and Swellings of the Bones, Tetter, Pimples on the Face, and all Scaly Eruptions of the Skin.

It is gratifying to the proprietor of these medicines to be able to state that it is now nearly three years since they were first introduced, during which time they have been extensively used in various parts of the United States, and have given to patient and practitioner the highest degree of satisfaction in the various cases in which they have been employed; whether in town, country, hospital, or private practice, they have invariably given the most decided and unequivocal satisfaction, and produced the most salutary and beneficial effects. Numerous letters have been received from the most distinguished physicians in the country, and from the professors of several medical colleges, recommending in the highest terms the value of these medicines and their superiority over all other preparations for such complaints as the proprietor recommends. Numerous preparations of Sarsaparilla and of Buchu, and of various modes of preparing them have been given, all of which of course will differ according to the mode of preparation which each individual may adopt.

These medicines require considerable care in the preparation and the employment of different menstrua in successive operation to take up the extractive matters, and in consequence, are most frequently improperly made, and not unfrequently much impaired, if not rendered totally inert, by the injudicious and unskillful management of those unacquainted with pharmaceutical preparations.—It is, therefore, of the highest consideration and importance to the public and to the faculty that there should be standard preparations of uniform strength and possessing the most advantages. To effect this and obviate the evil alluded to, I have made a number of experiments to ascertain the most effectual mode of extracting the virtues of the Sarsaparilla and Buchu, and to discover the most eligible form for their exhibition. The experiments have resulted most favorably, and it is with much pleasure I now offer to the public and the faculty my Compound Fluid Extracts, which contain all the virtues of the articles they are represented to be made from in a highly concentrated form, and are the most active preparations which can be made. Two tablespoonfuls of the Extract Sarsaparilla added to a pint of water, is equal to the Lisbon diet drink, and one bottle fully equals in strength one gallon of Syrup Sarsaparilla, or decoction usually made.

PRICES.

The cost of insurance does not exceed one-third as much as in Stock Companies, saying nothing of the increased security and the incompatible ease with which losses are settled. ### EVARTS' PATENT SHINGLE MILL

EVARTS & BUTLER,

PROPRIETORS & MANUFACTURERS,
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS.

THE SMOOTHNESS OF THE WORK WHICH GIVES this Mill its superiority, is produced by making the cut in the direction of the fibre of the wood.

The ease with which wood is worked in that direction gives it speed of execution; and the flexibility of the shingle width-wise relieves the saw, so that it may be ground thin on its edge, so as to cut away but little of the wood.

The shingles now made with this mill sell in this market seventy-five cents per thousand higher than any other sawed shingles.

This mill is made entirely of iron—strong, simple and of the best workmanship, easily worked, and not liable to get out of order.
